

I William Dundas Esquyre, Supervisor to the Messengers within this Nation, Have upon good grounds and for certain causes suspended, and by these presents doe suspend George Scot, George Dickson, James Nisbit, James Eistoun, John Dewer, John Carnegy, John Birnie, Gilbert Guthry, Robert Reid, Robert Wilkison, ~~_____~~, Nicol Hunter, George Thomson,
Robert Scoffeild, Samuel Ambros, Alexander Crichtoun, Robert Mackrie Messengers, and every one of them from the exercising of their offices within any part of this Nation, untill such time as they shall repair to their own respective Shires within which they are admitted, and shall be by me again restored: declaring hereby that whatsumever execution shall be done by them, or either ~~_____~~ of them in their offices, That the same shall be null conforme to the Act of Parliament, and their book of Injunctiones; And ordains the same to be put upon all mercat Crosses and other publike places within this Nation, To the effect the People thereof may pretend no ignorance of the same: Given under my hand at Edinburgh, the third day of September, 1656.

William Dundas.